I AM ONE OF THE COPE DAUGHTERS!!!!!! and I would just like to say to all of you that r eating out of billy's hands. WAKE UP!!!!!! He is not the so called man he is telling you he is. NBC did not have MY sisters and My permission to even air this. shouldn't we have a say in this? nobody can seem to let us forget and get on with our lives we were happy until this S*** gets stirred up again it sucks to have to keep watching and hearing what happened. We r tired of having people ask questions and court We hate it. what happened to what we said nothing was in there of what we said and why we did not want to go back. we have laid awake many night crying, remembering what happened. thinking of AMANDA and what she would be like if she were still alive. nobody even mentioned what her dreams were because they r all worried about (poor poor Pitiful) billy. ask him since he loved us so much what we wanted to do when we grew up, what we wanted to see, what we liked what we didn't. I am Sick of hearing his name. I am soooooo scared of him when I see something that makes me think of him I freak out. like the cologne he wore if i smell it I get scared I am tired of living in fear We want to make happy memories of us now and remember all the good times with Amanda. nobody was there but us we know what we saw and nobody knows what kind of person he was the things he done. as far as him being a preacher that is one BIG A$$ lie I don't know how my aunt susan get off sayin he was called to be a preacher at a early age why didn't he act like it and the cope family has some skellifons in their closets. To those who said he knows how to "play the game" is soooooooooooooooooo right thanks! billy (I do not call him dad anymore he does not deserve to be called dad.) and sanders did know each other when they saw each other theytalked like two school girls. which was usually at the store. there was a lot left out that did not get broad cast that should have but then they would not have had a story. No video made us decide he /S gully we had never seen the video till this was aired on the 9th we knew how abusive he /S. So if he thinks he is getting out well HELL WILL FREEZE OVER BEFORE HE LAYS EYES ON MY SISTER AND !! HE IS NOT MY FATHER ANYMORE SO PLEASE JUST LET US GET ON WITH OUR LIVES!!!!!!
